

*Filed
May 11 2010*

The following is a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by KCEN HD and KMAY NBC 23, Along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues. The listing is by no means exhaustive and this order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

April 1, – June 30, 2010

DATE	TOPIC	PROGRAM	DURATION	ISSUE
4/01/10	Consumer	6pNews	:26	Some Central Texas residents got some 1 on 1 time with Oncor to help keep their electric bills down this summer. Representatives from the electric company were in Harker Heights today.
4/02/10	Employment	5pNews	:12	March was a better month for jobs. There was more job creation last month than we've seen in three years.
4/03/10	Charity	10pNews	:19	Killeen's second chance animal shelter reopened today. The shelter burned last November, but central Texans stepped up donating their time and money to rebuild.
4/04/10	Culture	10pNews	:19	The Baylor Lady Bears are giving it their all in San Antonio battling it out for a trip to the NCAA National Championship game.
4/05/10	Health Care	6pNews	:22	More than 9 million dollar renovation for the Waco Veterans Hospital is now underway.
4/06/10	Government	10pNews	:35	We're just a week away from the Republic run-off for Congress in District 17. The winner next Tuesday will challenge Congressman Chet Edwards in November. Bill Flores and Rob Curnock debated tonight here at Channel 6.
4/07/10	Consumer	10pNews	:38	They're a black eye on the Federal Government's response to Hurricane Katrina and now they're here in Central Texas. After the storm thousands of trailers housed people who lost their homes, but there was a problem with them. The manufacturing process left some of these trailers full of the toxic chemical formaldehyde and five years later you can have one of your own. They're available at Brigadier homes in Waco.
4/08/10	Housing	5pNews	:22	A block of run down condemned houses is being transformed into a street of dreams in Waco. It's where you'll see everyone from low income families to the well heeled living as neighbors.
4/09/10	Culture	10pNews	:35	The wildflower capital of Texas kicked off the annual Bloomin Temple Festival today.
4/10/10	Government	10pNews	:27	The US Census Bureau is taking their push to get you to mail in those census forms to the streets. Volunteers are handing out t-shirts, hats and other items to let people know it's still not too late.
4/11/10	Military	5pNews	:19	It was chaos in the kitchen today at the Dominos Pizza in Copperas Cove all to say thanks to our soldiers. Today was Dominos 5 th Military Appreciation Day. Soldiers and their families were invited into the kitchen to make their own pizzas.
4/12/10	Education	6pNews	1:15	Killeen ISD plans to uproot more than a thousand students and move them to different schools. Tonight parents are letting them know how they feel about the idea.

DATE	TOPIC	PROGRAM	DURATION	ISSUE
4/13/10	Consumer	5pNews	:21	It's just what Toyota didn't need .Consumer reports magazine says don't buy one of it's suv's but its not because of brake problems. The magazine says the 2010 Lexus GX 460 suv is a rollover risk.
4/14/10	Culture	10pNews	:22	The Central Texas town of Granger is getting a full blown western makeover. It's all in preparation for a big Hollywood film. Matt Damon and Jeff Bridges will star in the John Wayne movie remake "True Grit".
4/15/10	Employment	6pNews	:26	100 new jobs are available in Central Texas and there's already plenty of competition. Today the Sprint Call Center was packed with people filling out applications and interviewing for the open spots.
4/16/10	Veterans	6pNews	:21	A new monument now stands at a local cemetery. It honors local war vets who died more than 65 years ago. A dedication was held today at the Pendelton Cemetery.
4/17/10	Education	10pNews	:29	A Bell County School District decision to bring back paddling as a way to restore respect and discipline in the classroom is grabbing national attention. The school board president says the reinstatement of corporal punishments dramatically improved the discipline problem.
4/18/10	Economy	10pNews	:07	Seeing their retirement dreams dwindle. Central Texas baby boomers look for new ways to plan for the future.
4/19/10	Military	6pNews	:21	The First Calvary Brigade returned home from Iraq today. They were supposed to be home Friday, but that huge volcanic eruption in Iceland delayed their flight.
4/20/10	Education	5pNews	:26	Baylor University is about to get a multi-million dollar boost from the city of Waco for a new research park. The research facility will be open to students from Baylor, TSTC, and McLennan Community College.
4/21/10	Education	5pNews	:37	A local high school is leading the nation with the number of graduates going to West Point. Harker Heights will send more seniors to the US Military Academy than any other high school in the country.
4/22/10	Consumer	Texas Today	:22	More care, more cost. Proposed changes to Texas daycares could affect your pocketbook to the tune of several thousand dollars. A proposed amendment would require more teachers in daycare centers. The extra staffing means higher day care costs for parents.
4/23/10	Military	Texas Today	:18	There is one field that has plenty of job security these days. The military. Army recruit numbers are already up 115 percent ahead of this year's goal and recruiter's have the tough economy to thank.
4/24/10	Ethnic	10pNews	:21	A new immigration law in Arizona is sparking controversy even here locally. Killeen's league of United Latin American citizens spoke out today on the bill. The new law makers illegal immigration a crime to be in the state without documents.

DATE	TOPIC	PROGRAM	DURATION	ISSUE
4/25/10	Weather	10pNews	:32	A day and half after powerful storms tore through Corsicana twenty families are looking for a place to stay. Winds ripped off the roof early Saturday morning at the Stonebriar apartments near Navarro College.
4/26/10	Economy	5pNews	:19	More parents are now beating high day care costs by putting their kids in school. The Temple and Waco school districts are seeing a jump in their pre-k enrollments, more than 50 new students this school year alone.
4/27/10	Housing	10pNews	:34	If you're looking for a new home in Killeen, you can expect to pay more. New home prices are about to rise. The city council tonight passed guidelines for homes on smaller lots, called garden homes.
4/28/10	Ethnic	10pNews	:27	In Austin, the Mexican-American legislative caucus said it doesn't believe the new standards pay enough attention to the state's ethnic diversity or the contributions of Hispanics to Texas history.
4/29/10	Law Enforcement	10pNews	:20	A man broke into the Love's Video store on I-35 in Bruceville-Eddy and the whole thing was caught on tape. If you have any information call the Bruceville-Eddy Police Department.
4/30/10	Health	5pNews	:21	Brazos County Health Department is looking into a confirmed case of mumps and several other possible cases.
5/01/10	Animals	6pNews	:25	Waco Humane society hosted it's annual "Paws in the Park" fundraiser today. There was lots of fun and games for pooches willing to put their skills to the test.
5/02/10	Law Enforcement	10pNews	:30	It started with a driver trying to be polite now Killeen police are investigating a crash between a motorcycle and an SUV.
5/3/10	Government	6pNews	:20	The Federal Government warns that you should stop giving your kids some liquid medicines. A recall is in effect for more than 40 children's medicines made by Johnson and Johnson. That includes Tylenol, Motrin ,and Benadryl.
5/04/10	Roads	6pNews	:05	New development along a Killeen road has some residents worried about their safety.
5/05/10	Education	10pNews	:19	Texas A&M's student senate is making it's voice heard on illegal immigrants and college tuition. The Senate represents the official stance of A&M's student body. Last night, they debated a bill that would oppose instate tuition for illegal immigrants.
5/6/10	Recreation	Texas Today	:41	From music to a parade and smokin' Texas B-B-Q things are heating up in Bruceville-Eddy for Mayfest 2010. The two day celebration draws huge crowds from across the state.

DATE	TOPIC	PROGRAM	DURATION	ISSUE
5/07/10	Environment	Texas Today	:37	While experts try to figure out how to stop the gushing oil leak ,a Temple salon is offering a low-tech solution. Hair and pantyhose could be a unique tool in the oil spill clean up. The concept is pretty simple oil likes hair. That's why we wash our hair, because the oil gets trapped in it .So ,rather than throw away hair after a cut ,it's swept up, collected and saved and sent off to the Environmental group" Matter of Trust" where it's then stuffed into recycled panty hose.
5/08/10	Government	10pNews	:31	The race for Waco's new Mayor has wrapped up. That was between candidates Jim Bush and Addis McNamara. It was an overwhelming win for Bush. Bush will take the place of Mayor Virginia Dupuy who is in her final term.
5/09/10	Roads	10pNews	:27	Heads up and slow down construction is set to begin on parts of Interstate-35 in Waco tomorrow. Tex-Dot will be closing the southbound entrance ramp from New Road.
5/10/10	Education	6pNews	:25	Construction is now underway for a new elementary school in Copperas Cove .District leaders broke ground on the 16 point 4million dollar project today.
5/11/10	Emergency Services	6pNews	:21	Get ready for sirens and emergency crews at Fort Hood and in Killeen. Fort Hood will hold an emergency test exercise tomorrow to prepare for an event like the shooting rampage last November.
5/12/10	Government	6pNews	:24	Casinos in Texas it's an option some state lawmakers say could happen. They're looking for a way to fix a projected 18 billion dollar shortfall in the 2012 budget.
5/13/10	Roads	6pNews	:19	Some homeowners in Temple hope the city will make potentially life saving changes along West Adams Ave. Since May 3 rd two people have died in separate traffic accidents. Temple police are looking at solutions to prevent more deaths.
5/14/10	Employment	Texas Today	:27	The Killeen-Fort Hood area is again on a list of the best places in the country for jobs. That's according to a new report from yahoo.
5/15/10	Veterans	6pNews	:29	Local Vietnam Veterans who paid the ultimate sacrifice were honored today. This morning in downtown Waco. The names of three service members were added to a Vietnam Memorial Wall.
5/16/10	Emergency Services	10pNews	:21	A man in Bell County is still in the hospital after an accident apparently involving a bulldozer it happened shortly after 2:30 on Chaparral Road and Lucille Lane.
5/17/10	Law Enforcement	Texas Today	:22	Whether you're the driver or the passenger in a car TX Dot wants to remind you to click it or you'll get a ticket. That's just one of a few new laws that took effect last year though they say many drivers might not know about them.
5/18/10	Consumer	5pNews	:59	In the typical home air conditioning uses more electricity than anything else and in warm spots like Central Texas, a/c can be 60-70% of your summer electric bill.

DATE	TOPIC	PROGRAM	DURATION	ISSUE
5/19/10	Consumer	Texas Today	:24	You'll see a new stamp from the U.S. Postal Service, that will help customers identify mail that needs extra postage. The butterfly stamp will be cut in silhouette. It will match a mark that members of the greeting card association will use that identifies cards that need additional postage.
5/20/10	Education	Texas Today	:23	The state's multi-billion dollar budget shortfall will be felt right here in Central Texas. That's because local colleges are being forced to make big budget cuts.
5/21/10	Military	Texas Today	:16	Troops from the 36 th Engineers Brigade are creating a park in Kempner just outside Copperas Cove.
5/22/10	Law Enforcement	6pNews	:34	If you're planning on hitting up local waterways for some fun in this warmer weather get ready to see law enforcement. You might have seen badges at Stillhouse Hollow or Lake Belton today. That's because Texas Parks and Wildlife game wardens, local police and DPS are cracking down on boating safety.
5/23/10	Consumer	10pNews	:22	If you're looking to save money. Get ready for a sales tax holiday that should save Texans about three million dollars. The Memorial Day weekend event means you won't pay state or local taxes on energy-savings appliances and products.
5/24/10	Education	5pNews	:36	Expect to see some changes to the history and social studies taught at local schools. The State Board of Education approved more conservative standards to textbooks on Friday. These changes affect what your child will learn and even the vocabulary in the lesson plans.
5/25/10	Law Enforcement	6pNews	:32	A DPS Trooper made an unexpected discovery along Interstate 35. Nearly half a ton of marijuana. The officer stopped the truck driver around 6:30 this morning just south of Lorena.
5/26/10	Consumer	6pNews	:23	A cable war is brewing here in Central Texas. One company is expanding it's service in Waco neighborhood to draw in more business. Grande Communications is adding cable lines along 3 hundred homes in the Sendero Springs subdivision.
5/27/10	Culture	10pNews	:23	A new statue at Shoemaker High School in Killeen honors the man for whom the school was named. The 2010 senior class donated the likeness of General Robert Shoemaker as their class gift.
5/28/10	Consumer	Texas Today	:24	A major new development will bring business, shopping and housing to more than 200 acres of East Killeen.
5/29/10	Recreation	6pNews	:28	A perfect way to cool off some Central Texans splash into their Memorial Day Weekend with the opening of the Waco water park.
5/30/10	Recreation	5pNews	:30	Lake Belton is definitely a hot spot this weekend-and we're not talking about the weather. Some business along the water say it's the busiest Memorial Day Holiday they've seen in years.

DATE	TOPIC	PROGRAM	DURATION	ISSUE
5/31/10	Military	5pNews	:30	In Killeen today more than 100 Patriot Guard riders paid tribute to our soldiers. Bikers paid tribute to our soldiers. Bikers in the 4 th Annual "Freedom Run" rode around Lake Belton. The event was a fundraiser that included games and food for the whole family.
6/01/10	Roads	Texas Today	:18	Memorial Day traffic was busy yesterday and some of that back up was caused by a number of traffic accidents.
6/02/10	Consumer	6pNews	:17	Temple homeowners are being asked to cut back on lawn watering. The city has moved into stage one water conservation which is voluntary.
6/03/10	Roads	6pNews	:17	1.5 billion dollars of construction on Interstate 35 won't be enough to handle the growth in Texas that's why Tex-Dot wants your ideas on what you think should be done to ease that problem.
6/04/10	Roads	10pNews	:15	A number of crashes along Interstate 35 this evening made for a tough commute as drivers headed home to start the weekend. Several cars were involved in this crash between Waco and Temple.
6/05/10	Law Enforcement	10pNews	:20	A manhunt is still underway in Lorena for a man connected to a domestic violence incident. Patrol cars, horses , canine units and helicopter have been brought in to try to capture the suspect.
6/06/10	Culture	10pNews	:28	More folks are moving to Central Texas that's according to the real estate center at Texas A&M University. The Killeen, Temple, Fort Hood area saw a population increase.
6/07/10	Recreation	5pNews	1:35	Camp Heatwave in Temple is another option if your kids need summer care. It costs 60 dollars a week, and runs all summer long .It's an adventure camp that teaches good sportsmanship and teamwork through a variety of recreational activities.
6/08/10	Charity	5pNews	:36	Central Texas Sickle Cell Anemia Association to not only raise money to help other people with the disease, but to encourage them to follow their dreams.
6/09/10	Roads	5pNews	:27	Record rainfall in Waco meant headaches for several drivers. Busy roads and intersections were flooded with high water.
6/10/10	Law Enforcement	6pNews	:42	A lot of folks in the Bruceville-Eddy area are fed up tonight over what they say is an abuse of police power. Some say local cops are stopping drivers for no reason and giving them tickets for violations they didn't even know existed.
6/11/10	Economy	6pNews	:34	The uncertainty over Baylor's future has fans, students and staff on edge. We're talking possible job losses and potential blow to the local economy.
6/12/10	Law Enforcement	10p News	:13	Breaking news out of Bell County. A student's body was found in a pond on the campus of University of Mary Hardin Baylor Campus in Belton. Campus police the body was discovered around 7oclock.

DATE	TOPIC	PROGRAM	DURATION	ISSUE
6/13/10	Culture	10pNews	:26	A vote brings a new beginning for a local congregation whose church was destroyed by arson. First Baptist Church of Temple is making plans for it's new sanctuary off FM2305.
6/14/10	Housing	6pNews	:17	If you're in the market for your first home. Temple has a housing development just for you. KB Home is building a new subdivision off Highway 317 and Tarver Rd.
6/15/10	Charity	10pNews	:21	Some local kids are using donated federal land to their advantage and what they're doing might surprise you. The Un-Included Club in Temple is growing a garden. It's all in an effort to steer clear of things like drugs and alcohol. The project is also inspiring Bell County's adult program.
6/16/10	Charity	6pNews	:28	As the temperatures goes up, so do people's electric bills and some who can't afford the increase make the dangerous decision to go without air conditioning, but they don't have to. There are several organizations that can help pay your utility bills.
6/17/10	Emergency Services	10pNews	:21	A fire tore through a group of townhomes in Salado this morning .It happened in the one-thousand block of Old Mill Road. Firefighters say the homes are rented out like a bed and breakfast.
6/18/10	Roads	Texas Today	:19	A multi-million dollar road project gets underway in Hewitt this morning. They're widening Hewitt Drive from two to four lanes each way.
6/19/10	Law Enforcement	10pNews	:06	Waco Police are trying to figure out what caused a car to slam into a railroad crossing arm.
6/20/10	Health Care	10pNews	:23	Texas Company scouts out sites in Bell County for it's new 100-million dollar hospital. LHP Hospital group of Plano plans build the facility in Killeen or Harker Heights. It says the private, state of the art hospital will include a large focus on outpatient care.
6/21/10	Consumer	5pNews	:20	Power outage in Woodway today left more then 900 customers in the dark and without air conditioning.
6/22/10	Economy	6pNews	:32	Some big changes are coming to Waco's Heart of Texas Fair Complex. County commissioners today approved a new master plan that includes a massive expansion of the grounds and some new additions. The H.O.T. board says this will help the economy.
6/23/10	Law Enforcement	Texas Today	1:45	Does a town of 400 really need a police officer? Buckholts has gone forward with their plans. They have an office for the Chief and a donated police car. But no cop.
6/24/10	Roads	Texas Today	:31	You might be seeing more DPS Troopers on Bell County roads after recent crashes killed three people and critically injured two others.

DATE	TOPIC	PROGRAM	DURATION	ISSUE
6/25/10	Economy	Texas Today	:26	If you're hitting the highways this July 4 th it sounds like you won't be alone. Triple A says the number of Americans expected to travel will jump about 17 percent over last year, boosted by optimism about the economy.
6/26/10	Law Enforcement	10pNews	:44	Killeen Police are searching for one of two teenagers charged with murder. They're accused of shooting another teenager Wednesday night in the parking lot of putt putt golf and games on cross drive.
6/27/10	Culture	5pNews	:27	A big day in Killeen as Fort Hood welcomes former First Lady Laura Bush. She signed copies of her new autobiography "Spoken from the Heart".
6/28/10	Economy	Texas Today	:25	In a sure sign of an improving economy experts say we should see a major increase in the number of Americans traveling this 4 th of July.35 million people are expected to hit the highway.
6/29/10	Weather	Texas Today	:40	Mother nature had a message for Central Texans as well. Thunderstorms dropped as much as 5 inches of rain in parts of Bell County yesterday evening.
6/30/10	Consumer	10pNews	:21	Starting tomorrow those who fake tan will have to pay an extra 10 percent tax .It's all part of the new federal tanning tax that will help pay for health care reform.